'Conversations' Sermon Topic

"The Conversations of God" will be the sermon topic Sunday at Seaside Community Church, 230th and Ocean Ave., according to the pastor, the Rev. William K. Schatz. The text for the message is taken from Romans 10:14b. Church school will begin at 9:20 a.m. and the morning worship service will start at 9:30 a.m.

Turkish Government Closes San Francisco Info Office

Many Torrance residents, particularly those connected with or interested in the Torrance - Konya, Turkey "City to City" program were saddened by the news that Nejat Sonmez, director of the Turkish Information Office in San Francisco, is being called back to his homeland.

In a letter to Chamber manager, Dick Fitzgerald, Sonmez said that strict economy measures of the new administration in Turkey made it necessary to close the Information Office in San Francisco. Sonmez has been an "adopt-

American Savings South Bay Branch Nearing Completion

Construction is nearing completion of modern new facilities for the South Bay Center branch of American Savings and Loan Assn.

The new building is located at 1959 Kingsdale Ave., next to the South Bay Center in Redondo Beach. Until new quarters are ready, savers will continue to be served at the present office which is on adjoining property.

The modern office building will incorporate the most advanced building techniques utilizing vast expanses of glass and ceramic brick. Carpeting will extend throughout the customer area in the lobby.

The South Bay Center branch is the fifth facility under construction this year among the 12-office association. Other offices currently under construction include Whittier and Palmdale. New branches at Redondo Beach and Hawthorne were completed in June, and new facilities were finished early this year for the Norwalk office. Amer-

District Provides Insurance for Staff

Teachers in the local school district are protected on the job with Blue Cross insurance plans tailor made for the teaching profession. This program is voluntary, as is the District's Federal Credit Union plan.

The Credit Union provides such services as savings accounts, 12 month pay schedules and financing.

ican Savings, founded in 1920, is celebrating its 40th Anniversary this year. Assets have reached an all time high of over $222 million with Reserves over $21 million, more than twice Federal requirements.

CONRAD C. JAMISON
... featured speaker

Bank Officer To Speak at Breakfast Meet

Featured speaker for the monthly breakfast meeting of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce will be Conrad C. Jamison, Vice President of the Security First National Bank. In addition to being a widely known and prominent speaker, Jamison is manager of the research department and editor of the bank's "Monthly Summary of Business Conditions in Southern California."

Also attending from the same banking institution will be James E. Shelton, chairman, board of directors; Harry S. Maily, vice president; Roy D. Hartmann, assistant vice president; Gilbert A. Pando, manager, North Torrance branch; and James J. Weigel, manager, Downtown Torrance branch.

THE CHAMBER is honoring Security First National for coming to Torrance with not just one, but four branch banks. The breakfast will be held at the Masonic Lodge, 2326 Cabrillo Ave. on Tuesday, Aug. 30. Serving begins at 7:20 a.m.

Jamison was born in Utah, moving to California in 1924. He was graduated from Harvard College cum laude with graduate work at SC and UCLA. He served 2 1/2 years in the Army with overseas duty. Among his many affiliations, Jamison is vice chairman of the technical advisory committee of the California Economic Development Agency; member of industrial development committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce; and American Management Assn. Jamison resides in Glendale with his wife, four daughters, and a son.

RESERVATIONS for the breakfast may be made by calling the Chamber of Commerce at FA 8-2814 through Monday, Aug. 29.
